

WHEN THE PRICE WOULD APPEAR ATTRACTIVE THE QUALITY, PERHAPS, HAS BEEN SACRIFICED

There is no risk taken when you buy a CHICKERING SON (Boston), IVERS & POND, PACKARD, KURTZMANN, STERLING, KOHLER & CAMPBELL, HARVARD, HUNTINGTON, besides a number of less expensive Pianos that may be seen on our floors and are regarded as leaders in their respective grades. YEARS FROM NOW you would regard the price of the Piano you purchased now as small if then you FOUND that you had in your home a Piano that had proven satisfactory. Time alone will demonstrate the musical value of a good Piano and the honor of the house that sells.

Our aim has always been to sell the class of Pianos that would secure for us the confidence and esteem of the public. No Piano concern can produce a better asset than a satisfied community of buyers, and we are in Alliance to stay. Call and see us in our new quarters, Brennan's old drug store, opposite postoffice

LEGAL NOTICE

In District Court Box Butte County, Nebraska.
In Matter of the Petition of W. F. Hanley, Administrator, for License to Sell Real Estate.
Now on this 1st day of March 1910, this cause came on for hearing upon the petition of W. F. Hanley, administrator, of the estate of A. D. Haas, deceased, praying for license to sell the following described real estate of the said A. D. Haas, to-wit:
Lot Eight, Block Eleven in town of Hemingford, Box Butte County, Nebraska, or a sufficient amount thereof to bring the sum of $750.00 for the payment of debts allowed against said estate and allowances and costs of administration, for the reason that there is not a sufficient amount of personal property in the possession of said administrator belonging to said estate to pay said debts, allowances and costs.
It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at Chambers in the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, County, Nebraska, on the 15th day of April, 1910, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. to show cause, if any there be, why a license should not be granted to said W. F. Hanley, administrator, to sell so much of the above described real estate of said decedent as shall be necessary to pay said debts and expenses. It is further ordered that a copy of this order be served upon all persons interested in said estate by causing the same to be published once each week for four successive weeks in The Alliance Herald, a newspaper printed and published in said county of Box Butte, Nebraska.
W. H. WESTOVER,
Judge of the District Court.

We Mean You!

During the one week of March 21 to 28 the Lincoln Daily News will accept $2 from mail subscribers for a whole year to April 1, 1911. This is a cut of just one dollar from the regular price made just this one week by cutting out all sorts of canvassing and collecting and letting you do business by mail at a cost of a stamp. This is a year filled with big things, the nomination and election of a United States senator, a big row over the saloon question and then the coming legislature, to say nothing about the scrap over Uncle Joe Cannon and a few smaller guins. You cannot afford to be without a live, independent, fearless newspaper. We let you in right by knocking off a dollar on the start. No booze or nasty medical ads, and free from bossism. It is human throughout and is always doing things it thinks will help Nebraskans. Remember Lincoln is your town and here is where lots of your interests are. This is the paper you ought to take, and by sending in before March 28 you can save this dollar. Don't pay money to strangers for any paper, but send your order direct to the Lincoln Daily News or to your local agent.

Homestead

(Received last week too late for publication.)

Miss Burk is staying with Mrs. Sloan during her illness.

Weir and Ball expect to put in cement reservoirs on their homesteads in a few days.

Mrs. Perry Ball is visiting her parents and Perry is getting a little touch of bachelor's life.

Several homesteaders began breaking and discing last week, among them being Perry Ball and Leslie Shelter.

Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Ball are arranging for a few days visit with their relatives over near Hemingford this week.

Ryan, Burk, Leathers and Spoon went to the timber, 30 miles away, for wood Tuesday and as usual got caught in a storm.

Mr. Holm, Robt. Spoon and A. D. Weir put the sod on the roof of Mrs. Stagg's house. Underneath the sod is galvanized roofing, so Mrs. Stagg is now prepared for the spring rains.

Mrs. Lou Whitaker and Mrs. Jim Kelly drove over to Mrs. Cadwalder's to spend the day Tuesday, and got lost on the return home but were piloted on their way by one of the homesteaders in this neighborhood.

The Government Inspector, inspecting the improvements of those having recently made proof, has been in our neighborhood looking over the improvements of Mrs. Grant, Messrs. Thorp, Hedgcock, Ball, Hickey, Johnson and others.

Mr. Whitaker Sr., Mr. Stratford and others have been scouring our part of the county trying to buy cows and calves. In fact the "woods is full" of cattle buyers, or rather would-be cattle buyers, if they could find any to buy. Its too late in the season gentlemen. Wait till next winter's snows are on.

Our good neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Thorp returned from their visit in Florida a few days since. Mrs. Thorp has been in a sanitarium at Orland, Fla. Mr. Thorp likes Nebraska better than any place he has ever been and was glad to get back home. His daughter Lennis, returned from Kansas with them, but Willie remained in the land of sunflowers.

Mrs. Sloan from near Carly, fell a few days ago and was quite seriously hurt. She was unable to get up until her husband who came from the barn and found her lying helpless in front of the door. A little baby was born to them a few hours after the accident and we understand both mother and child are doing nicely.

A plan for holding a religious service in the form of a class or experience meeting right after Sunday School has been inaugurated in our neighborhood and the plan promises to be one of the greatest helpfulness as well as pleasure to our community. Everyone is urged to attend the meetings. A different leader will have charge each Sunday.

Death's pitiless hand was laid on the home of one of our most highly esteemed citizens of the township north of us last week, when it took to his heavenly home Mr. Cadwalder, who has been a sufferer from tuberculosis for a long time. Our neighbors Scott and Jones, both old acquaintances of Mr. Cadwalder, spent the last two days with the sufferer and were of great service and comfort to the family. The best and grandest tribute that can be paid any man was paid the deceased, of about those who knew him said he lived and died a christian, and not a pretender.

MARPLE MUSINGS
